

Liam currently serves as Associate Director of Operations for the Office of Value Transformation, under the Department of Population Health at Vanderbilt University Medical Center (VUMC). Prior to his current role, Liam served in business operations administration for the Sections of Bariatrics and Interventional Pain Management in the Surgery Patient Care Centers of Vanderbilt Medical Group (VMG) at VUMC. Before joining VUMC, Liam was responsible for all administrative operations as Executive Director of the Laser Spine Institute's Ambulatory Surgery Center in Cleveland, OH. While in Dallas, TX, Liam served as a Sr. Consultant and Director of Product Implementation for ACAP Health, Founder and Vice President of National Academic Business Development services for The Medicus Firm, and Sr. Account Manager for Arthur Marshall Inc.

In addition to Liam's achievements in the healthcare sector, he is also the Founder of multiple companies of his own in the healthcare technology, sports technology, and consulting arenas.