

Cameron Ahrens – Benefits & Wellness Manager

Cameron Ahrens' title is Benefits & Wellness Manager and works in the Office of Treasury & Financial Management, the Benefits Division. Mr. Ahrens has worked at Johnson County since October, 2004. His responsibilities include: managing the Benefits Division for the County, including the County's Health Care Fund which combines all the employer and employee medical and dental contributions and from which medical and dental claims, vision premiums, and dental and medical administration fees are paid. Medical and pharmacy claims and administration fees for 2022 are estimated to cost about $60 million.

Prior to working at Johnson County, Mr. Ahrens held the position of Second Vice President at AFS Benefits, Inc., a health care consulting firm and stop loss Managing General Underwriter in the Kansas City area. He has served as the Missouri Health Insurance Pool as Executive Director from 1993 to July 1, 2004. He has worked in the health insurance industry for 42 years, primarily in group health insurance claims. Mr. Ahrens has held several management positions in the medical claims administration industry and has experience working for insurance carriers, managing general underwriter, third party administrator, and a consulting firm. Mr. Ahrens graduated from the University of Kansas.