

Aamir has over 23 years of healthcare industry experience as a physician executive. He has served in senior management and executive roles directly for major stakeholders in almost every vertical of the healthcare industry including payers, providers and employers. He has also worked for pharmaceuticals and PBM clients in his role as a consultant. Starting his consulting career at Oliver Wyman, he served as a clinical SME for healthcare clients as well as an analyst on business design for clients outside of healthcare. During his tenure at the Advisory Board Company, he was a Partner/ Principal at the firm and served in a number of roles, including as the first head of the Physician Leadership Academy and leading the H-Works consulting division. Aamir also has hands on corporate experience, having worked as Executive Vice-President and Chief Strategy Officer of Saint Peter's Healthcare System and then as Vice-President of Healthcare Delivery Transformation and Chief Clinical Integration Officer at VHA SE (now Vizient). Aamir's payer experience includes working for Fortune 50 companies and unions (through start-up Renaissance Health), serving as a Partner and Chief of Clinical Services for North America for Mercer – where his responsibilities included advising large employer clients on their clinical and digital health strategy – and as SVP of Clinical Innovation at Consortium Health Plans (a Blue Cross Blue Shield company focused on National Accounts).
