

Jen Lescsak is the Sr. Director of Sales, Repricing and PPO Networks at Contigo Health. She leads a team of experienced professionals and is responsible for new business growth and account management in support of Contigo Health's network product suite. Jen has over 28 years of reputable experience in multiple facets of healthcare, including the development, sales, and operational oversight of a national PPO program, TPA operations and sales, product development, vendor procurement and management, strategic analytics, technology solutions, and cost containment expertise concerning clinical outcomes and cost transparency on a prospective, concurrent, and retrospective basis. Jen lives in Stow, Ohio and enjoys volunteering for Multiple Breed Rescue, spoiling her three rescue dogs, attending her grandchildren's sporting events, and being an avid healthcare networker and social butterfly.