

Dr. Matt Smith earned his doctorate of physical therapy from the University of Puget Sound in 2004 and since that time he has worked in a variety of care settings. He enjoys making an impact in people's lives by helping them create innovative care solutions for their musculoskeletal issues. He loves to work with diverse populations and experience different cultures. Matt's mission is to give hope back to his patients and help them return to doing the things that give them the most joy.

Matt has been working at Sword Health for the last 2 years and currently is a Clinical Operations Team Lead at Sword Health. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with his family outdoors and taking care of bees...yes, bees.
