

Dr. Moore joined Walmart in January 2023 as a Sr. Director of programs and strategy, where he is responsible for the clinical activities of the innovation team.

Dr. Moore received his MD and completed a double residency in internal medicine and pediatrics at the University of Missouri, and then worked as a community-based primary care physician for seven years. After leaving practice, he worked in a variety of healthcare leadership roles. He has been a hospital administrator, an executive at a large national health insurance company, and most recently, the chief clinical officer for a healthcare finance startup. He lives in St. Louis, MO with his wife, dog, and a too-large collection of science fiction books and hobby board games.
