

Krista Virost was recently hired as the Senior Director of Network Development at Contigo Health. She has over 20 years of healthcare experience primarily in Managed Care contracting encompassing all provider and payer types. Prior to joining the Contigo team, Krista was the AVP, Managed Care for ProMedica Senior Care where she was responsible for designing and implementing value based care contracts, account management of national health plans and growing the managed care revenue to close to a $1B annually. Krista is passionate about transforming the health care industry through innovative business solutions. Krista received her Bachelors in healthcare administration from Bowling Green State University.