

AJ is the Director of Business Development at Lionrock. He brings over 27 years of experience working in the corporate benefits field as both a wholesaler and retailer and over four years working with the Substance Use Disorder (SUD) community. AJ specializes in the distribution of employer-sponsored healthcare for their populations. He uses his experience to increase employee engagement and utilization of Lionrock's SUD benefits for groups of all sizes. AJ earned his BA from Ohio State University.