

Brett is currently the Director of Provider Compensation for CH-West and CH-South, having worked in this role for just over a year. Prior to joining Corewell, he was in a senior role within the Health Care Strategy & Operations practice for Deloitte Consulting with a focus in population health and medical group strategy. He specialized in advising executives and leading teams through the assessment, design, and implementation of provider compensation plans as it relates to larger strategic initiatives (e.g., mergers & acquisitions, “shift to value” play, cost optimization).

Brett achieved his Masters of Healthcare Administration from the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, as well as a Bachelors of Science from the University of North Carolina Wilmington (majoring in Exercise Science, minoring in Leadership Studies). He lives in North Carolina with his wife, where they enjoy an active lifestyle of camping, boating, and hiking.
